

Montana Project Learning Tree
Educator's Workshop
PARTICIPANT APPLICATION

Schoolyard Gardens: Connecting Children with Nature through Native Plant Education

Saturday, April 17th, 2010 9:00 am - 3:45 pm

Nature Adventure Garden, Fort Missoula

Six OPI Credits - $13 Registration fee

Registration fee includes all materials, Pre K-8 Environmental Education Activity Guide, lunch and snacks

During this workshop, we'll learn about:

- History and Background of PLT.
- PreK through 8th grade activities exploring the themes of native plants, pollinators, invasive weeds, restoration and conservation principles
- Community outdoor education resources
- Ways to integrate native plant gardens into science standards utilizing PLT

Name _____

Affiliation/Agency/ School _____

Address _____ City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Work Phone _____ Home Phone _____

E-mail _____ County _____

Please describe your current connection to outdoor education, native plant gardening, and/or restoration: _____

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

How do you plan to use the PLT curriculum?

---

---

---

---

What topics are you most interested in learning more about at this workshop?

---

---

---

---

---

Additional information: _____

---

---

---

---

For more information or questions please contact:

Workshop Facilitator

Leah Grunzke

406-493-0544 or miss\_grunzke@yahoo.com

Minimum class size: 5 Maximum: 15

Application deadline: April 2, 2010

Please send completed application to
Leah Grunzke, Restoration Ranger
Montana Natural History Center
120 Hickory St.
Missoula, MT 59801
miss\_grunzke@yahoo.com

Montana Natural History Center
Your Base Camp for Discovery